

CHRISTIAN LEGAL SOCIETY MENTORING PROGRAM
Mentor Questionnaire

"Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.
Let us not give up meeting together . . . but let us encourage one another."
*Hebrew 10:24-25

The DC Metro Christian Legal Society invites you to participate in our mentoring program. This is an opportunity for you to have a lasting impact on a law student or young attorney, and to share your faith in Jesus Christ by living out your Christian commitment in the legal profession.

The goals of the mentoring program are to:

1. Provide a vehicle for local law students and young attorneys to become involved with the Christian legal community in the DC area;
2. Give law students and young attorneys a personal mentor to contact outside of their school or work environment;
3. Offer law students and young attorneys spiritual guidance, prayer and encouragement;
4. Give local attorneys an opportunity to be involved in the CLS student chapters at DC area law schools; and
5. Increase the visibility of, and law student and attorney participation in, CLS as an active part of their professional, educational and spiritual experiences.

Please indicate below your interests in becoming a mentor to a law student or young attorney. We will be responsible for matching law students and young attorneys with a mentor based on the expressed interests in the type of mentor relationship desired.

- ___ Yes! I am interested in becoming a mentor to a law student or young attorney.
- ___ No, I am not available to mentor a student at this time, but I may be interested in the future. Please keep me in mind if additional mentors are needed in the future.
- ___ No, I am not interested in becoming a mentor, but I am interested in one or more of the other options involving CLS student chapters at the end of this form.

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Firm / Company: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Area of Law you Practice: _____

Geographic area in which you are most involved (circle one):    DC    Boulder

Below are suggested mentor activities. Please mark the activities that interest you to help us find a student or young attorney who has similar interests. Please feel free to add any comments below.

- I will offer to take a student or young attorney to lunch.
- I will invite a student or young attorney to my office to see my workplace.
- I will invite a student or young attorney to spend a morning/afternoon with me at my office.
- I will call a student or young attorney once or twice a month to see how he/she is doing and offer encouragement.
- I will be available for the student or young attorney if he/she would like to call me.
- I am willing to talk to the student or young attorney about the type of law I practice and how best to prepare to enter that field of law.
- I will help the student or young attorney prepare for applying for summer clerkship positions. I will share what I believe attorneys are looking for in an applicant and in a resume, and the types of questions the student may be asked in an interview.
- I will be available to offer spiritual guidance on what it means to be a Christian attorney in the workplace, in legal practice, and in everyday life.
- I will offer guidance and share my own experiences in learning how to handle stress and balance priorities: professional, family and Christian commitments.
- I will pray for the student or young attorney, remembering the stress and pressure of law school or the workplace.
- I will be willing to host an out-of town student or young attorney for a home cooked meal during a holiday.

Is there a particular person that you would like to mentor? If so, who?

Are you interested in any of these other potential activities with CLS student chapters:

- I would attend a prayer meeting with attorneys and students at a law school.
- I would consider participating in a roundtable discussion with one or two other attorneys and students.
- I would be willing to give a 45 minute presentation and question/answer period to the students on a topic of interest.
- I would be interested in a brown-bag lunch with the students at a law school.

Dear Friend,

Please seriously consider your involvement in the CLS Mentoring Program. If you want to participate, please do the following:

- (i) fill out the mentor or the student/young attorney questionnaire and return it by _____;
- (ii) pray that God would use your mentoring relationship to change your life and the life of the person with whom you are paired; and
- (iii) plan to attend the CLS Mentoring Program Kick-Off Party on a date to be announced.
(You can still participate even if you are unable to attend this event)

God has used mentoring programs like this one in other CLS chapters to change lives, and we believe that God can and will use the relationships established in the DC Metro CLS Mentoring Program in a significant way. We hope to see you at the kick off party.

Mentoring Announcement Used in DC Metro CLS Newsletter:

Are You Being Called To Participate In This Year's Mentoring Program?

The DC Metro Christian Legal Society once again invites you to participate in our mentoring program during the upcoming school year. This is an excellent opportunity for you to have a lasting impact on a law student or young attorney, and to share your faith in Jesus Christ by living out your Christian commitment in the legal profession.

The mentoring program pairs up Christian law students and young attorneys with more experienced Christian attorneys during the school year. The goals are to:

1. Provide a vehicle for local law students and young attorneys to become involved with the Christian legal community in the DC area;
2. Give law students and young attorneys a personal mentor to contact outside of their school or work environment;
3. Offer law students and young attorneys spiritual guidance, prayer and encouragement;
4. Give local attorneys an opportunity to be involved in the CLS student chapters at DC area law schools; and
5. Increase the visibility of, and law student and attorney participation in, CLS as an active part of their professional, educational and spiritual experiences.

If you are interested in being a mentor or mentee or would just like more information about the program, please contact _____ at _____.
